INCIDENTS

Abduction | Domestic Assault | Strangulation. On Tuesday, August 23, 2016 at 2:15 AM, officers from the Haymarket and Prince William police departments responded to the 6000 block of Madison Street in Haymarket for a report of a domestic assault. Prior to arriving at the scene, officers met with the victim at the Haymarket Sheetz and determined that she had been assaulted, strangled and held against her will by her cohabitating boyfriend, Trevor Davidson.

On arriving at the scene, units established a perimeter and attempted to make contact with Mr. Davidson. After multiple attempts proved unsuccessful, warrants were obtained from the Magistrates Office and officers from both agencies again responded during the late afternoon. Once a perimeter was re-established, a brief standoff occurred during which time Mr. Davidson audibly manipulated a firearm. As officers reassessed, several family members were contacted and they ultimately convinced Mr. Davidson to exit the residence and surrender. He was subsequently taken into custody, transported to the Adult Detention Center and charged with Abduction, Strangulation and Domestic Assault and Battery. A .40 caliber Smith & Wesson pistol was recovered at the scene.

Possess Marijuana. On Sunday, August 28, 2016 at 3:17 AM, officers stopped a vehicle traveling at 90 mph on I-66. On approach to the vehicle, the officer detected a strong odor of marijuana. A subsequent search located a small baggie of marijuana and the driver was released on a summons for possession of marijuana.
