

Town of Haymarket Town Council Meeting
15000 Washington Street, #100~Haymarket, VA 20169
Mayor Pamela E. Stutz
Thursday, January 24, 2008 continued from January 7, 2008

Meeting called to order at 7:14 p.m.

Roll Call: Stutz, Vazquez, Cole, Shuryin, Jarboe

Mayor recuses herself from all discussion regarding the lease with Teaching the Basics and turns meeting over to Vice Mayor Cole

Rob Billingsly-member of vestry of St. Paul's Church, comments on the fact that it was a civil war hospital, considers the church as historical and has granted relief from its renewal clause of Jan. 2009. He asks that the Town please provide relief from the fees for moving the school.

Terry Sawyer

Slatemore Road

2 daughters 6 & 8 both went to teaching the basics. She became involved with the school by being a board member. She would appreciate the Town's consideration in helping

Charlotte Peyton

She has a 4 year old attending TTB. She see a drastic difference in her younger child that attends TTB then her other children that did not

Martha Kutsinger

Her children went to Teaching the Basics, when her oldest got to kindergarten she realized how much she loved Teaching the Basics she wanted them to add grades. There are no other schools around here that offer this kind of school.

Ray Bell

School Board president for Teaching the Basics-shares a story about this morning. A lady speaking about the diagrams her children went there 12 years ago.

Father Jones-Pastor St. Paul's Church

Talks about an ad to support education, a good education is good for all. Teaching the basics ahs a good education. He asks the Town do whatever it can to insure that education. Church decided not to get lawyers involved they want to b e good neighbors. They wanted to be sure the mature trees maintained on the church lot. They feel they have worked with the town and community on aesthetically.

Linda Landwehr

She loves the church and school and glad it is in the community. She comments on the resignation of Councilman Weir. She feels the make up of council is less than what it was without Mr. Weir.

*Councilwoman Sikorsky joins the meeting.

Jarboe says she would like to do whatever the town can do to support the school

Shuryin agrees with Jarboe and that the school is a great attribute to the community.

Vazquez remembers trying to find good schools for his children when they were young. That environment is a great plus to the community.

Town of Haymarket Town Council Meeting
15000 Washington Street, #100~Haymarket, VA 20169
Mayor Pamela E. Stutz
Thursday, January 24, 2008 continued from January 7, 2008

Sikorsky-Same sentiment

Cole-School brings added value to the Town.

Cole comments that we don't know what they want to do. We cannot waive all fees without knowing what they want to do.

The school does not have a set plan to present to us this evening.

Council asks for a more specific list of fees that the school would like waived. They also ask for a more expeditious review than normal. The council agrees that we can offer that consideration. They feel the Kennedy plan is an example of what they will do in the future.

Letter of resignation from Councilman Weir

Cole motions to accept the letter of resignation of Councilman Weir dated January 14, 2008,
Sikorsky seconds;
Vazquez-No, Sikorsky-No, Shuryin-No, Cole-No, Jarboe-No

Weir takes his council seat.

Weir comments that he meant what he said on the 14th, He comments on the UVA and Haymarket Landing re-zoning applications.

Cole motions to refer the Haymarket Olde Town Center Preliminary Site #PRE20080119 plan to the Planning Commission for their review and recommendation, Jarboe seconds;
Ayes: 6
Nays: 0

Council to have responses back no later than 31st on the management doc.

Re-zoning of Town Property

Cole moves to refer to the Planning Commission that a zoning map amendment for GPIN 7298-80-9226 commonly known as 15026 Washington Street, Jarboe seconds;
Ayes: 6
Nays: 0

JCB asks that the construction permits be withdrawn for the Quarles Site plan. Tabled to February meeting.

Jason Collins will be the new chair of the ARB.

Summer concerts are fast approaching. Sikorsky is referring those to the town staff to handle the summer concerts.

Haymarket Day-kick off meeting this week. Feb. 6 next meeting 4:00,

Town of Haymarket Town Council Meeting
15000 Washington Street, #100~Haymarket, VA 20169

Mayor Pamela E. Stutz

Thursday, January 24, 2008 continued from January 7, 2008

Town has received back the flag that was sent to Iraq and we received a nice letter from the division that got it.

Re-schedule meeting of 01/17 to 01/31 at 7:00 p.m.

Write a formal request to the County attorney's and demand a written position of the county with respect to the legal position of the county with regard to the density transfer.

Vazquez motions for Weir to write the letters to the county attorney and copy the supervisors and any others necessary, the letter is subject to approval by the Town Attorney;

Ayes: 6

Nays: 0

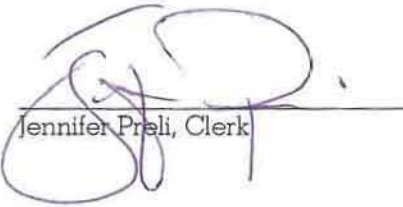

Cole motions to adjourn the continuation meeting of January 24, 2008, Jarboe seconds;

Ayes: 6

Nays: 0

Submitted:

Approved:

Jennifer Preli, Clerk

Pamela E. Stutz, Mayor