APRIL 17, 1989-TOWN COUNCIL MEETING:WOMAN'S CLUB:

Bird made a motion to grant the Haymarket Woman's Club permission to put Haymarket, Va. and a logo of Town Hall on some tee shirts they plan to sell on Haymarket Day, this was seconded by Kapp, the motion carried.

POLICE DEPT.

Officer Amos Damron asked what he should do about Junk Vehicles. Bird said he was opposed to doing anything right now. Mayor Freeborn told Council to read the literature over on Junk Vehicles and it will be discussed at the next meeting.

Damron also wanted to know what more he can do for the Town? Mayor Freeborn stated that she was well pleased with his work. Damron told Council that if there is anything else they would like him to do, to please let him know.

Officer Damron has had several complaints about a Tractor Trailer parking at the house near Matthews Restaurant. Richard said the house is in the same rezoning that the Restaurant is in. Mr. Smith said they could park there if it is in a Commercial Zone, but they must buy Town Tags, however Mr. Smith was going to check further on this.

Damron spoke on setting up procedures for selecting Police Officers. A meeting will be held at 7:30 p.m. prior to the 8 p.m. Haymarket Town Council meeting on May 1, 1989.

Ron Hancock brought up the subject of getting A bullet proof jacket for Damron. Richard said this probably would be done at the same time the new Police Cruiser is purchased, in the meantime Damron was asked to check on vests with the County and get some information on them.

PRESENTATION:

Councilman Richard Bird who is on the County's Steering Committee, presented information on the Linton Hall Comprehensive Plan Admendment, and showed maps of the plans. He also mentioned that in the Town's Comprehensive plan that Chesapeake Bay Preservation should be included, saying we will have to make a stipulation in our Comprehensive Plan for it because the State of Virginia now is part of it and anything the State does, the Town and Counties will have to do also.

When asked if anything was mentioned about the old Antioch School being used for in the school plans, Bird mentioned No.

SITE PLANS:

The Site Plans for Payne and Merchant were discussed. Bird made a motion to accept the Site Plans, 2nd by Bean, the motion carried.

Mr. Smith and Richard Bird told Mr. Payne he must post a bond, a Letter of Credit would be preferred. Mr. Payne will present an estimate to Council on this.

COMPLAINT:

The Mayor had a complaint regarding children running out of the front door at Bonnie and Clydes, into the street, saying there was no guard rail to stop them. She was told by Bird a safety rail could not be put up there because of it being state property but a control should be put on the front door to slow children down.
