

The Oct. 17, 1983 Haymarket Town Council Meeting began at 8 p.m. with five Council members present. Lois Crewdson was absent. After the prayer, Pledge of Allegiance and roll call, minutes of the Sept. meeting were read and approved. Treasurer Gertrude Bean reported a balance of $15, 553.21 in the General Account and $1,478.79 in Revenue Sharing at the end of Sept.

In the August 15, 1983 minutes, it was stated that Councilman Hugh Orndoff was to be Police Commissioner, in a motion made by Councilwoman Anne Smith, seconded by Gertrude Bean and approved, this will be changed to Liaison between the Council and Police Dept.

In items of other business; Anne Smith reported that Mr. Lane is getting some of the cars hauled away from his lot this week.

Councilman James Gossom wanted to know if there is a record of those in Town who haven't purchased tags yet? It was stated that Mr. Allison has given the records to Chief Don Fasick. Councilman Hugh Orndoff will check on this.

Mayor Gilbertson will check on faulty sewer systems in Town. She also read a short monthly report from Chief Fasick who couldn't be present.

In new business, Dennis Wyre spoke on the upcoming "Clean Up Day" on Nov. 5. He also went over the schedule of fees, charges, expenses and required materials on P. 36 of the Zoning Ordinance. Councilwoman Smith is to work with the Planning Commission to secure a schedule concerning this to present to Council.

The Town was asked to sponsor the Halloween parade and activities by paying the insurance for the evening. Anne Smith made a motion to do this, seconded by Gossom.

Alan Gossom asked approval from Council to put up two signs on the front of his new store and one sign on the side facing Jefferson St., they had already been approved by the Planning Commission. Councilwoman Bean made a motion to accept the, seconded by Councilman Gossom and approved.

Garnett Johnston with help from the Planning Commission presented a sketch of new homes he would like to build on Madison St. Final plans will be presented at the next meeting. Concerning this; Whereas application has been made to ouist from the requirement of the Subdivision Ordinance the construction of sidewalks, curbs and gutters in Madison Acres, and whereas the planning commission has recommended that an exception be made to permit the approval of the said final plat of Madison Acres corupliance with the requirement of sidewalks, curbs and gutters on the basis that the area does not need such improvements, that their construction would cause drainage problems and that their maintenance would not be the responsibility of the Highway Dept.

Councilwoman Anne Smith moved that an exception and variance be approved for the said Madison Acres Subdivision waining the construction of sidewalks, curbs and gutter, there being no objection on the part of the Highway Dept. Councilman James Gossom seconded it and it was unanimously approved.

Next, Ellen Wilson spoke on having a book drop in Haymarket, perhaps outside of Town Hall, where area residents could deposit their Library books instead of making a special trip to Manassas. Bean made a motion that this be done, seconded by Gossom and approved.

A discussion was held regarding offices for the Sale and Display of Motor Vehicles in the Town. Councilman Hugh Orndoff asked for a roll call vote to determine if they should be permitted in Town. The vote was unanimous in favor of accepting them. At this point Allan Gossom and Attorney Leo Scolforo presented ten new applications to open offices on his property that were approved; The names were; 1. Benson and Sons Wholesale Trucks, 2.
