VII. Old Business

Zoning Administrator Emily Kyriazi gave the most recent updates of the progress of the town home construction located in the Robinson Village development. She also gave the updates on the Robinson Paradise development located at Walter Robinson Drive just off of Jefferson Street. She shared that they have received their final site plan approval and working through the final plat approval. She stated that the demo permit request is going before the ARB at their next meeting.

Mrs. Kyriazi shared the updates at Crossroads Village Center. She stated that the two arms of the traffic signal have been installed at Costello Way and should be active early spring 2023. She also shared additional utility work will start soon. A short discussion followed on the traffic lights. She gave updates on the Lidl Grocery Store construction and the three multi tenant buildings within Crossroads Village Center. Lastly, Mrs. Kyriazi shared that the builder of the townhouse development located at the back of the Crossroads Village Center is coming before the ARB for a design change at their next meeting. There was a question about the timeline on when the construction would start on the town houses. Mrs. Kyriazi stated that there is an anticipation of the first seven ready as model homes by January. A short discussion followed.

VIII. New Business

Zoning Administrator Emily Kyriazi introduced the new Town Planner, Thomas Britt, to the Planning Commission. She shared that Mr. Britt will be staffing all Commission and Architectural Review Board meetings and will be working through all of the Town's zoning and planning matters. She stated that she will be still working through the larger matters such a site plan reviews. She also shared that Mr. Britt will take over the drafting of the Comprehensive Plan. Mrs. Kyriazi shared that Mr. Britt will be the main point of contact while she is out on maternity leave.

Mrs. Kyriazi shared that staff has a meeting scheduled with the Karter School which will be situated in front of Robinson Village town home development about the possible purchase of the additional parcel that is available.

Lastly, Mrs. Kyriazi shared that she is working with Great Mane Brewery on a future grand opening.

There was a question about the lack of trees in front of the Winterham building. Councilmember Weir asked for staff to check the bond release requirements for that building.

IX. ARB Updates

Commissioner Hallet gave a brief update on the subject of the demolition site visit at Walter Robinson Lane at their next ARB meeting. He shared that a decision would likely be made after the site visit.

X. Town Council Updates

Councilmember Weir gave the Town Council updates. He shared that the Town Council adopt the Ordinance for the real estate tax refund at their last meeting and that the checks would be going out by the end of the week. He also shared that the Town Council signed a letter of support for the railroad crossing quiet zone grant that Prince William County applied for. Lastly, Mr. Weir reminded everyone that the Town elections were November 8th.

There was a discussion about the advertisement of public hearing notices along Rte 55. Mr. Weir shared that the hearings were for consideration of more housing along Rte 55. He also shared that the most recent public hearing was for John Marshall data center project. He shared that the request has been deferred indefinitely by the applicant.

XI. Adjournment

With no further business before the Planning Commission, Councilmember Weir moved to adjourn with a second by Commissioner Chrisman. The motion carried.
